RESPONSE

Dear Sir:

In response to the Office action of 04/10/2003, Applicant submits the following:

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Claims 1-34 are pending in the present application. The Examiner has rejected claims 1-12, 15-28, and 31-34. The Examiner has objected to claims 13, 14, 29, and 30. Applicant respectfully requests reconsideration of pending claims 1-34.

The Examiner has withdrawn the previous rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 102 based on the Pitcher and Callon references. However, the Examiner states that the same claims are rejected based on a newly applied reference.

The Examiner has rejected claims 1-4, 7, 15, 17-19, 23, 31, and 34 under 35 U.S.C. § 102(e) as being anticipated by Civanlar et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,078,963). Applicant respectfully disagrees, as set forth in detail below. While the Examiner states that the routing engine 107 and the routing database 104 provide information to the forwarding engine 105 which is implied to be the device that transmits and receives to other router ports and external to the router, citing col. 3, lines 28-30, Applicant submits that Civanlar et al. actually teaches away from such operation. Immediately following the cited portion, in col. 3, lines 30-33, Civanlar et al. state, "Each intelligent router port 103
